To designate your estate, trust, or charity as your named beneficiary, print "estate" or the name of the trust or charity, followed by the name of the executor/trustee in the blank provided for "Named/Option B Beneficiary" or "Named Beneficiary." To designate more than one person as a named beneficiary or Option B beneficiary, see the reverse side to list additional named or Option B beneficiaries. Submitting this form cancels and replaces all of your previous beneficiary designations. To continue any previous beneficiary designations, you must fully list all Named or Option B Beneficiaries on this form.

To designate more than one person as a named beneficiary, see the reverse side to list additional named beneficiaries. Your cobeneficiary cannot be the same as your named beneficiary because your named beneficiary will only receive a lump-sum payment of any remaining Defined Benefit (DB) Plan account balance in the event that you and your cobeneficiary die. If you choose an Option P3 and name someone other than your spouse who is more than 10 years younger than you as your cobeneficiary, the amount that continues to your cobeneficiary at your death could be limited in accordance with percentages required by the Internal Revenue Code regulations.

If your Option B beneficiary(ies) receives a benefit after your death and dies before the end of the guarantee period, a single payment will be paid to the estate of the deceased beneficiary.
