

Refund/Rollover of Your PERA DB Plan Account After Terminating PERA-Covered Employment

This booklet is intended to help you understand how to do a refund or rollover of your PERA DB Plan account(s). Please read the following information before completing either the Refund Request or Rollover Request form. When you terminate PERA-covered employment, you may keep your account at PERA where it will continue to earn interest. You must take a refund or a retirement benefit when you reach the Required Minimum Distribution age.

Overview of Refunds and Rollovers

If you refund your DB plan account(s):

- You are receiving your entire DB Plan account(s).
- If you have both a PERA benefit structure and Denver Public Schools (DPS) benefit structure account, the refund applies to both DB Plan accounts.
- You will pay federal income tax, which will be 20% from the tax-deferred portion of your refund unless you complete a Form W-4R (Withholding Certificate for Nonperiodic Payments and Eligible Rollover Distributions) to request a higher percentage of withholding. Find Form W-4R under “Refund/Rollover Request” on the Member and Retiree Forms webpage at copera.org.
- You may pay a 10% additional income tax imposed by the IRS for early distribution for refunding if you are under age 59½. (See the Tax Considerations for Refunds and Rollovers fact sheet for more information.)
- You may be responsible for paying state taxes on the full amount when you file your state tax return since PERA does not withhold state tax.
- You will forfeit any rights associated with your DB Plan account(s) including your right to any future benefits with PERA.
- Your refund will be paid to you in the manner you requested and cannot be reissued or returned to PERA.
- Your DB Plan account(s) will be refunded to you within 90 days of PERA receiving all contributions and the completed documentation.
- You will lose access to the PERACare Health Benefits Program and the life insurance program through Unum.
- You will lose the right to apply for PERA’s disability program if you have more than five years of service credit and are terminating PERA-covered employment because of a potentially disabling condition.

If you roll over your DB plan account(s):

- You are rolling over your entire DB Plan account(s), unless you choose to receive part of it as a refund.
- If you have both a PERA benefit structure and Denver Public Schools (DPS) benefit structure account, the rollover applies to both DB Plan accounts.
- PERA will not withhold income tax on the amount that is rolled over directly into the other financial institution. You are solely responsible for all taxes and financial consequences of your decision.
- You will forfeit any current and future rights associated with your DB Plan account(s) including your right to any future benefits with PERA.
- Your rollover and any portion that is refunded to you will be paid in the manner you requested and cannot be reissued or returned to PERA.
- Your DB Plan account(s) will be rolled over to your financial institution within 90 days of PERA receiving all contributions and the completed documentation.
- You understand that PERA may discuss this rollover with the receiving financial institution(s) named in the “Financial Institution Certification” section on the Rollover Request—Defined Benefit Plan form.
- You will lose access to the PERACare Health Benefits Program and the life insurance program through Unum.
- You will lose the right to apply for PERA’s disability program if you have more than five years of service credit and are terminating PERA-covered employment because of a potentially disabling condition.

Part I Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. The TIN provided must match the name given on line 1 to avoid backup withholding. For individuals, this is generally your social security number (SSN). However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, see the instructions for Part I, later. For other entities, it is your employer identification number (EIN). If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN, later.

Social security number

or
Employer identification number

Note: If the account is in more than one name, see the instructions for line 1. See also What Name and Number To Give the Requester for guidelines on whose number to enter.

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

1. The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me); and
2. I am not subject to backup withholding because (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding; and
3. I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person (defined below); and
4. The FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that I am exempt from FATCA reporting is correct.

Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and, generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. See the instructions for Part II, later.
